

DUNEDIN

Professor Andre van Rij, BMedSc, MD (Otago), FRACS

Prof van Rij, is Professor of Surgery and Head of Section for the Surgery, Medical and Surgical Sciences at the Dunedin School of Medicine.

He is international recognised for his expertise in vascular disease and is a frequent key note speaker at international symposia on vascular and venous surgery. He has been the author or co-author of over 160 clinical publications.

Prof van Rij is a prominent member of many prestigious medical organisations, including...

- *Fellow, Royal Australasian College of Surgeons
- * Otago Medical School Research Society
- * Australasian Surgical Research Society
- * NZ Medical Association
- * Sigma XI
- * NZ Gastroenterology Society
- * Vascular Section, Royal Australian College of Surgeons
- * Australia and NZ Society of Vascular Surgery
- * NZ Society of Vascular Surgery
- * NZ Association of General Surgeons
- * Phlebology Society (Australia New Zealand chapter)
- * International Union of Angiology

Prof van Rij can be contacted care of the Vascular laboratory at the Otago Medical School. Phone 03 474 7685